

Please note that the corporation does not have IPFCF coverage for any period of time during which primary professional liability insurance coverage is not in place, and that the statutory limits of liability do not apply for any such period.